University Senate Approves of Plans for Theological College

WILL BE OCCUPIED OCT. 1ST

Building to Cost $100,000 and to Give Accommodation to 100 Students—Description of Plans

At the meeting of the University senate yesterday the Alberta College board presented, through the president, the plans of the new theological college which will be constructed on the portion of the University grounds set aside by the senate for such purposes.

The plans met with general approval, and great satisfaction was expressed as to the style of architecture and type of building. When completed the building would give accommodation to 100 students and would cost about $100,000. Dr. Riddell reported that the contract for clearing the ground on which the building will stand had been let, and men were now at work. Brick and stone were being delivered in preparation for building in the early spring. It was the intention to have the building ready for occupation by the 1st of October.

The plans, which are now in the office of Architect H. A. Magoon, show the new building to be of the school Gothic style with pressed brick and cut stone trimmings. There will be four storeys with a basement. The dimensions are given as 166 by 43 feet, with a wing in the rear 43 by 63 feet. The main entrance on the ground floor opens on to a large central rotunda with offices and waiting rooms to left and right. Provision is made for male and female teachers' private rooms, a library and six class rooms connected so that at some future time they may be made into dormitories. The first floor of the wing in the rear gives accommodation for 13 beds. The second floor is provided with eight-foot corridors, a parlor, and accommodation for 26 beds. On this floor of the wing is the large dining room which will seat 125 people. In the rear of the dining room are the kitchen and pantries. Dormitories and toilet rooms for 30 students are located on the third storey with an alcove and clothes closet for each bed. On the fourth storey is the assembly hall, which will have a seating capacity of 400. In the basement are two gymnasiums, servants quarters, boiler room and store room. The building is provided with a freight elevator and two central stair cases from the basement to the fourth floor.

Of the $100,000 which the building will cost Dr. Riddell informed The Capital that $50,000 has been subscribed by the Hant A. Massey estate with the provision that a like sum be raised by the board in six months time. Already several substantial subscriptions have been received and assurances have been given that the balance will be forthcoming to meet the conditions.

SIX MILD CASES OF SMALL-POX

Four Children and Two Adults of Halfbreed Families now in the Small-Pox Hospital

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Whitelaw, the medical health officer, was notified that the dire disease, smallpox, was prevalent in the city. The patients have been ill for a week but kept the thing quiet until Friday.

The disease is confined to two halfbreed families who occupied tents at the corner of Tenth and Athabasca. In one tent was found Louis and Delphin Charlious, aged 22 and 12 respectively. In the adjoining tent four children, George, Archie, Frank and Rachel Pannette were all suffering with the disease.

The six cases have been removed to the city smallpox hospital, where all necessary precautions are being taken to prevent any further cases.

The children were the first to show signs of smallpox and communicated it to their older ones. Where the infection came from originally is not known, but the health authorities suspect that the patients caught the disease from some of their relatives in the country.

Dr. Whitelaw is attending the patients personally and says that they have the mildest form of smallpox. Indeed, they are hardly sick except for a rash on the face and wrists and one would not suspect them of having such a contagious illness.

All people who were exposed have been vaccinated, and it is sincerely hoped that no new cases will develop. One important detail is, not one of the patients have ever been vaccinated.

The city smallpox hospital is under the management of the isolation hospital, which it is far removed from the building, being away back in the woods. It is an isolated but very comfortable building and the patients are receiving the very best of care.

INQUEST WAS ADJOURNED

McCormick woman who Figured in Shooting on Isabella St. Still Aged

THREE WITNESSES CALLED

Coroner Smith will Continue Case on Saturday Next When Woman will be Called

The inquest into the death of Robert McCormick, the negro who, it is believed, shot his wife and then committed suicide, was opened by Coroner Smith at Andrews and Sons' undertaking rooms, 542 Nanyam street, this morning. It was expected that the wife of the dead man, Rosa McCormick, who has been in the hospital suffering from a bullet wound in the back of the neck, would be able to go present to give her version of the affair. However, the doctor attending her declared that it would be dangerous for her to go out so soon, so after the hearing of some preliminary evidence, the inquest was adjourned until next Saturday morning.

Three witnesses were called this morning. Arthur Paley, who was first on the scene after the shooting; Fritz Scheur, who was passing the house when the shooting started, and a Mrs. McPherson at whose place McCormick had roomed prior to his death.

Paley testified that last Sunday afternoon, when a black away from the house, he heard a third and a woman scream. Running to the spot he found Mrs. McCormick lying on the steps of her house, bleeding from a wound in the neck. After begging him to help her she stated that the man who had shot her was inside. Paley then went and got assistance.

Fritz Scheur, employed in a livery stable, stated that as he was passing the cottage at the corner of Queens and Isabella he heard shot and a woman fell through the doorway right at his feet.

"I started to run as hard as I could," said Scheur, "but I had only gone a few feet when I heard a second shot, and the crash of falling glass. Then I ran harder than before."

Mrs. McPherson, the third witness, who keeps a rooming house on First street, said that about the 9th of last October McCormick came to her place and took a room.

"He was a very quiet man," said she, "I don't know what he shot, and what I never saw him drunk. About the middle of November he brought his wife to my house. They stayed only a few days, and then McCormick told me they had secured a house. After this he used to come back occasionally, but never stayed more than one night at a time, always paying for his room."

"Then on Monday, the seventh of this month, he came and stayed until Thursday night. He left Friday afternoon, but asked me to keep his valise for him. He told me there was a revolver in it. I asked him if it was loaded and he said yes. Then I told him I would not touch the valise if he did not unload the gun, so he did so, taking out five or six bullets. He came back Sunday afternoon about three o'clock, and asked for his valise. He took it down the passage, and in a few minutes brought it back and put it in the cupboard himself. I did not see it again."

When shown the revolver that the police found in the dead man's hand, Mrs. McPherson was emphatic in her statement that it was not the same one that she had seen in McCormick's valise. She said the one she had seen was larger. The witness also identified the body as McCormick's.

The inquest then adjourned.

AN INCIDENT AT OTTAWA

Mr. Blain Threatened to Slap Mr. Carvell's Face when they got Outside

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—In the public accounts committee yesterday Mr. Carvell, member for Carleton, N.B., accused Mr. Crockett, York, N.B., of trying to mislead the committee in connection with contracts let to the Maritime Dredging Company and the Dominion Dredging Co.

Messrs. Crockett and Blain jumped to their feet and demanded that Mr. Carvell withdraw his remark. Mr. Carvell, turning to Mr. Blain, said, "You are a common nuisance." Mr. Blain retorted, "Now, my honorable friend, you don't want me to slap your face, do you? As soon as I get outside I'll force you to apologize."

Mr. Crockett asked for the protection of the chairman against such ruffian conduct. The incident ended with Mr. Carvell admitting that there had been a misunderstanding and apologizing to Mr. Blain.

ORGANIZING LUTHERANS

Rev. A. Hjoisaas, from Ryley, is at the present in the city for the purpose of organizing a Lutheran congregation among the Scandinavians in Edmonton. Judging from the encouragement he is getting he will have a strong congregation perfected before he leaves. "This will mean much to the Scandinavians now located here," said one of them, "and may be the means of many others making Edmonton their home. The Scandinavians are a people of deep religious conviction and are closely knit together socially. Nothing can bring people together like a church organization and make strangers feel at home in a strange place."

About a month ago young Carroll was married and had taken up his residence in the village of Carroll, Man., where his father also resides. Last night Miss McCullough called at Carroll's house and when she appeared the girl fired a revolver and without warning fired a bullet taking effect in Carroll's stomach. She then gave herself up to the police. Jealousy is said to have been the cause.

HON. MR. CROSS HAS THE FLOOR

Moved Adjournment of the Debate Until Monday at Four o'Clock

MINOR SUBJECT DISCUSSED

Mr. Boyle Nettles the Premier by Asking Questions When Members were Anxious to get Away

The half-hour session of the legislature yesterday was adjourned with Attorney-General Cross speaking to the first reading of the bill respecting agreements for the sale of chattels. Mr. Cross will have the floor when the House meets on Monday afternoon at four o'clock.

Many of the southern members were anxious to have adjournment in time to enable them to take the three o'clock train for the south. Before the motion was put, however, Mr. Boyle asked when the papers in respect to the government railway guarantees and contracts would be brought down. The premier was somewhat nettled. He replied that the papers would be brought down as soon as the government was ready. The House would be sitting for another month and there was no hurry. The Attorney-General also informed Mr. Boyle that he would have any papers he wanted when the government was ready to bring them down.

In respect to the bill which will be debated on Monday Mr. Cross explained that it would be a great relief to farmers against unjust conditions which have been existing in the west. He stated that under the Act, if carried, all agreements for the sale of chattels would be binding on the purchaser, in any action in connection therewith, unless the judge trying the action deemed the agreement a reasonable one. In explanation Mr. Cross said that many farmers particularly foreigners purchased farm implements and other chattels on complicated agreements which they did not understand. Many of these were unjust and the purchasers were in the unfortunate position of having to forfeit the machinery and in many cases pay damages for violation of some minor clause in the agreement.

The legislation now being put through the House was advanced a further stage and several petitions were presented. Mr. Cushing presented petitions respecting amendments to the Calgary City Charter, the validation and confirming of certain bylaws, and incorporation of the Calgary Y. M. C. A. Mr. Roberts presented petitions for amending the High River charter and the incorporation of the North-West Life Insurance Co. and Mr. Woolf for incorporation of the Bill Insurance Co.

Bills to receive the first reading were the incorporation of the Stavey Club, incorporation of Great West Permanent Insurance Co., incorporation of the Athabasca Landing Club, the confirming of certain by-laws of the Camrose charter, amendments to the Lethbridge charter, amendments to the Edmonton charter, incorporation of the Alberta and Saskatchewan Central Railway Lines, and incorporation of the Yellowhead Coal Co. Mr. Puffer, chairman of the committee on Standing Orders reported progress.

The adjournment was moved by Hon. C. W. Cross, and seconded by Mr. Bennett.

THE DEALS IN WESTERN LAND

Carried on by Mr. Foster Taken up in Libel Suit Against Globe Editor

Toronto, Feb. 19.—In the Foster-Macdonald libel suit yesterday Col. Stevenson, supreme chief ranger of the I.O.F., was the only witness on the stand during the whole day. He was called by the defence. The evidence of Col. Stevenson dealt with matters which had been touched upon by the insurance commission. Mr. Rowell got some information regarding the proposed land deals in which, from documents produced and signed by Dr. Montague, certain interests in Manitoba lands were to be given to Hon. R. P. Roblin and Hon. Robert Rogers of the Manitoba cabinet. The document did not disclose the value of said lands.

Before reading the letters in which Mr. Foster urged Dr. Oronchatek to give more L.O.F. money to the Union Trust Company, Mr. Rowell said that as far as the defence had been able to trace it, the Union Trust Company had invested in lands and property in the West more than $2,500,000. In much of these investments Mr. Foster was personally interested. This large sum was made up as follows:

To the Great West Land Company, $508,000. The Kamloops Milling Co., $1,000,000. The Montague Syndicate mortgage, $133,000. The Aird lands, $94,080 and $229,150. The Carrot lands, $204,800, and the Swan River lands, $522,680.

Col. Stevenson submitted two cheques made out by Mr. Foster in favor of Foster to the amount of $7,488, and the case will be continued today.

Strange Suicide of Young Woman in New Brunswick—Doctor Didn't Respond

St. John, N.B., Feb. 19.—A peculiar case of suicide occurred yesterday at Mechanic settlement, Kings county, when Mrs. Josiah Anderson, about 20 years of age, who was married only ten days ago, was the victim, taking poison. Mrs. Anderson did not appear as usual at breakfast time, and when her mother, Mrs. Wootton, who went to call her, she found her in great agony. A doctor was sent for, but while advice seems to have been given by telephone, no doctor went from Sussex to the settlement. The woman died early in the afternoon. She had been contemplating suicide, it is said, for some time.

ASSASSINATION ATTEMPTED

One More Tragedy Likely at Ill-Fated Cherry Mine in Illinois

BOSS SHOT AT MINE MOUTH

By a Dismissed Employee While Engaged in Superintending Work of Recovering the Bodies

Cherry, Ill., Feb. 19.—An attempt to assassinate one of the St. Paul Coal Company's bosses, added to the tragedy of the Cherry Mine disaster yesterday. Melia Manditch, a dismissed employee, stepped up behind Charles Albertson, a newly appointed boss at St. Paul mine in which nearly three hundred men were killed last November, whipped out a revolver and, crying, "To pay you back," fired three shots. Albertson fell, probably fatally wounded. The shooting occurred during the work of recovering the 166 or more bodies which have been entombed in the mine since the fatal fire. Eleven men were brought up. Albertson was standing at the mouth of the shaft, ordering the hoisting of the bodies. About the mine entrance stood a circle of widows and orphans, all eager to learn whether the next body would be theirs. Suddenly three shots were fired in rapid succession and the men dashed from the crowd, leaving the spectators in confusion. A hundred men went after the fugitive, who was captured with the revolver still in his hands. Manditch said he shot Albertson because the latter had refused to give him a job. Later a mob surrounded the lock-up and the prisoner was taken to Princeton, Ill., for safe keeping. Among eleven bodies recovered was that of John McGill, a boy. When the alarm of fire spread through the mine last November, McGill's father strapped his son to him and ran several hundred feet before he fell unconscious. The father was taken out by the rescuers and revived. The boy could not be rescued because of the fire. The father is now working to help clear the mine.

JACK WHITE LACROSSE COACH

A Few Memories of the Season John Played in Port Hope—That Town Will Never Forget It

News comes from Cornwall that John White, the veteran Indian lacrosse player, has been engaged to coach the newly formed lacrosse team at Carleton Place. White will go to Carleton Place in time to start work with the Indians by March 1st.

John was a magnificent individual player, but that idea of him exerting his influence over a bunch of fiery young redskins to make them keep training sounds rather ludicrous.

We remember about eight years ago when the town of Port Hope thought it was some "junks" as a lacrosse town. Goaded on to desperation by a series of defeats by their rival, Peterborough, at a large and representative gathering of the citizens it was decided to "strengthen" the team. A little private campaign fund was hastily gathered together and a scout, Jack Hoey by name, was sent out to gather some real lacrosse players. Among those gathered in to the fold were Tony Roche of Point St. Charles and the great and only John White. Gracious what a life Jack led the placid town of Port Hope! The peaceful calm which formerly overspread it was a thing of the past. The Indian brave was just like a kid and it was funny to see a bunch of substantial citizens indulging him to turn out to practice. He always wanted to do the other thing and get a large case of swelled head on account of the hero worship of Port Hope's youth and beauty. Next to the mayor he was the most prominent man in town, even displacing the police force, Douglas by name, from his pinnacle of greatness.

When the team went to Toronto a guard of five men had to be told off to look after White and keep him from blowing out the gas and walking in front of the street cars.

By the end of the season Port Hope said "never again," and ever since has been paying off the debt incurred by the lacrosse team of that year.

And now Jack is going away to be a coach. Poor old Carleton!

KOTT WON THREE

At the Y.M.C.A. last evening Dan Knott's team won three games from Miller. The teams played four men a side. The scores:

Miller's team:	1	2	3
Crishen	148	150	93
Trapp	102	134	106
Horne	114	121	121
Miller	133	114	133
Total	407	521	463

Knott's team:	1	2	3
Byles	142	131	131
Robander	125	150	137
Andrews	113	85	97
Knott, D.	160	151	167
Totals	540	534	535

Reports from Ottawa say that Hay Miller played Gordie Roberts on a standard on Saturday last. Slightly different from the Stanley Cup games. Billy Phyle, the former Toronto right fielder, and better known as Home Run Hill, is some bowler. A few nights ago he compiled a total of 657, which included a 243 single.

PUT OVER A GOOD ONE

Prince Albert Springs a Little Surprise on Its Rival Saskatoon—Sent Some Assistance to the Davidson Team

A funny story comes from the neighboring province of Saskatchewan where Saskatoon and Prince Albert are running neck and neck for the hockey championship. First Prince Albert looked like winners, but last week Saskatoon got Harold Dutton and Hugh Ross to help them out, and the leaders were beaten. But there is another competitor, the Davidson team, which is looked upon as a rank outsider. Prince Albert defeated it by a large majority and Saskatoon looked on its engagement with them as a joke, so they didn't bother strengthening up for the game. Imagine the amazement of the Saskatoon team when upon their arrival on the ice at Davidson, they saw a number of new faces on the opposing team. It transpires that Prince Albert, trying to get even for the surprise Saskatoon put over on them, very kindly sent some help to the Davidson team in the way of players. The result was Saskatoon was badly beaten.

It is now up to Saskatoon to win their game in Prince Albert next Tuesday in order to tie the team for the championship. Saskatoon intends winning the game all right and are making extensive preparations for the trip, of which preparations more anon.

ADANAC WILL PLAY DEACONS

The Amateur Champions of Saskatchewan will Play the City Champions on Tuesday Night

Edmonton hockey fans are going to have an opportunity of seeing the touring Adanac team in action. Ed. Neil, manager of the touring Saskatchewan team, made arrangements yesterday afternoon to play the Deacons here on Tuesday night. This will be some game. Adanac have played two games already on their tour. On Wednesday night they defeated Lacombe on Lacombe ice by 5 to 4. Any team that can defeat that bunch on their own woodpile must be there with the goods. Thursday night Adanac played that fast Stettler (of painful memory) team and after leading for three-quarters of the game lost out in the last five minutes.

This team comes from a town of 85 inhabitants, but every inhabitant must be very familiar with the look of a hockey stick.

Dracons will have McGannon on their line-up again, and with full strength will make this Canada spelled backwards aggregation travel to the limit.

Adanac play the Red Deer team this evening and Monday they expect to play Strathcona. On Wednesday they leave by the C.N.R. and play the more important towns on that line.

The Midland district was well represented in the Ottawa-Renfrew hockey match. Fred Ridpath halls from Lakefield; Fred Whitcroft from Peterboro and Hay Miller from Norwood. Ten Simpson, the famous Hamilton Tiger footballer, is also a Peterboro product.

YOUTH WILL BE SERVED

Story From Sydney of Ruddy Bob Fitzsimmons Last Appearance in the Ring

Lanky Bob Fitzsimmons, who met his Waterloo in Sydney, Australia, on December 27th, said as he recovered: "Youth must prevail!"

For twelve rounds Fitz had stood toe to toe with Bill Lang, a husky and vigorous opponent. For nine of those rounds the marvelous skill and head of Fitz enabled him to avoid most of the terrible swings, jabs and uppercuts that were aimed at him by Lang. And Lang received many a tough one from Bob.

But here is where the story comes in. Fitz is 29 years of age. Fitz is 48. Lang weighs 187 1/2 pounds. Fitz weighs 150 pounds.

Lang had been fighting only five years. Fitz has been fighting for 32 years.

The Sydney newspapers just to hand tell how Bob, their former idol, tried to wrest from Lang the Australian championship in a bout scheduled for 20 rounds, and which ended in a knockout in the 12th round that forever put the clumps on Fitzsimmons as a ring fighter.

Immediately after the fight that sent Bob into the discard, in the presence of 22,000 spectators, he said to the newspaper men:

"It was a gentlemanly fight. There were no remarks in the ring—not even any 'kiddings.' That's the way I think men should fight. I don't think the seconds should be allowed to make remarks either."

"I can't tell just how I felt while I was being counted out. I wasn't quite unconscious, and I could hear the referee telling of the seconds, but for the life of me I couldn't get up. It was weakness, nothing else."

"It's my last fight—of 370 battles," said the ex-world's champion. "And up till today," he added, in tones of pride, "I was only beaten fairly once."

"By whom was that?"

"By Jeffries."

Just then a messenger arrived from Lang's dressing shed to invite Fitzsimmons to join Lang in a glass of champagne.

"Thanks," he said in a minute,"he replied. "Yes," he continued reflectively, "I've been fighting 32 years, and I've fought 370 battles. I realize now that youth must win. Age has told its tale. I didn't realize it until I was training for this fight. Then it dawned upon me. I couldn't run like I used to, and I felt that I didn't need anything. I felt that I couldn't spar like I used to. And in the ring this morning I couldn't punch like I used to. There's no doubt about it. It's age. I can't fight any more."

"Speaking of your other fights, what about your recent one with Johnson?" How did he get the decision over you?"

"He fooled me," said Fitzsimmons; "cross-buttocked me, and threw me over his head."

MINTO CUP DATES FILLED

Montreal Lacrosse Team will Visit New Westminster on June 18 and June 25th Next

Special to The Capital. Ottawa, Feb. 19.—The Minto Cup trustees have fixed upon Saturday, June 18, and June 25, as the dates for the lacrosse matches between the Montreal Lacrosse team, challengers, and the New Westminster aggregation, the cup holders.

The Hamilton Spectator is blossoming out as a hockey authority. It prophesies the victory of Renfrew in the return game with Ottawa. As Hamilton was never known to own a hockey team the sudden interest may be accounted for by the fact "that there is a man in the Ambitious City who gets letters from Fred Taylor." Heavens! What a great man he is!

KLING WANTS MERE $40,000

The Fearless Johnny Will Sue the National Commission for that Sum if Not Re-instated

Cincinnati, Feb. 14.—Caterer Johnny Kling has sent to the National commission a statement to the effect that if they do not allow him to play ball for four more years he will bring action in the civil courts for $40,000 against the members of the commission. He does not make this as a threat, but says it's the truth.

Word has come indirectly from Kling and is one of the results of the workings of a number of attorneys on the case. They all say that if Chairman Herman, President Johnson and President Lynch refuse him admittance and he is kept out for four years, that he has one of the best cases ever known for plain "breach of contract." Therefore, it is promised that unless Kling does a C.N. uniform in the spring he will be in the court room fighting for that $40,000.

ALL RECORDS BROKEN.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 18.—All records were broken here the other day by the bowlers, when Secretary Langley opened his mail, a total of 410 fifteen-teams having sent in their money for the tenth annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress. One thousand doubles and nearly two thousand individuals will enroll in the present meet.

DEACONS WILL PLAY ALL-STAR

Dug O'Hara is Getting Together a Picked Team from the Other Three Teams to Play the Champions

Next Thursday there will be a game that will be of unusual interest to Edmontonians. The Deacons, city league champions, will play an all-star team from the other three clubs in the league. Every club will have representatives on the teams and the Deacons have offered to put up the cup and the city championship on this game. In case the Calgary Tigers come here Thursday next the city league will be postponed until the next Tuesday.

That Ottawa forward line of Haisley-Thorp, Gaud, Dawl and Currie showed up the Winnipeg talent on the Shamrock team. It was Nick's first game and he made good.

"IT'S FUNNY WHAT A DIFFERENCE"

Fred Taylor Once the Idol of the Ottawa Fans Was Greeted Last Saturday by Hises and Lemoas.

Fred Taylor, making his first appearance in Renfrew colors before the crowd which idolized him last season, received a remarkable reception. When Taylor skated on the ice, the Renfrew supporters set up a roar that was quickly drowned by a chorus of hisses and hisses, two thousand megaphones being turned loose on the Listowed wonder as he skated down and faced the dreaded bleacher crowd. Lemoas were showered at Taylor in addition to copes, and the climax was reached at half time when an Ottawa supporter hurled a whiskey flask out on the ice in the direction of Taylor, play being stopped while Bowick and Campbell scraped up the glass and lime fruit. Taylor's every move was booed and jeered, vile names following as a natural course.

Throughout the ordeal, however, Taylor was perhaps the coolest man on the ice. He did not serve a penalty or rough it up; in fact, he showed a wonderful nerve in the face of a force of hisses and roars. Taylor did not score his promised goal, Lake and Shore dumping him head over heels on three or four occasions when he seemed sure to fail. He carried it through the Ottawa men for the sixth goal of the match, however, and from beginning to end was very effective, particularly on the defensive.

The Ottawa players marked Taylor throughout, and on three or four occasions the cyclone went down as the result of a jab or a poke from his former team-mates. But after each jolt Taylor jumped to his feet, waved those who offered to assist him aside, and continued pickily, the crowd towards the close being unable to restrain a demonstration in favor of Taylor. When he carried the rubber down and gave it over to Whitecroft, who tied the score, nearly everyone in the rink broke into cheers. Nine out of ten people seemed to expect Taylor to go into the air, but on the contrary he was cool as an iceberg.

Wm. Pratt, who formerly ran the cigar store now known as the Hub, has decided to become a pioneer. Bill will start out very shortly for the Peace River country with the intention of starting a first-class billiard and pool room in the new country. Six tables will be taken along. Pack ponies will not be utilized.

The Medicine Hat Times has this as leading for a curling paragraph: "Curlers return from Banff—no jewelry."

HIGH SCHOOL AND VARSITY

The Two Leading Teams in the Intercollegiate League Play at the Thistle Kink this Evening at 7 p. m.

The Edmonton High School hockey team dashes with the University seven this evening at seven o'clock in the Thistle Kink. The University team beat the fast Strathcona Collegiate team last Friday by 10 to 8, and are confident of another victory tonight. The High School team has not yet been defeated this season, and if they defeat Varsity will finish at the top of the league with a perfect percentage. They have already won six consecutive league games. This should be one of the fastest games this winter in the Intercollegiate League. The line-up will be:

High School	Goal.	University
May	McKeen	Point.
Bekker	Dobson	Cover-point.
Hepburn	Taylor	Rover.
Goodrich	Beck	Centre.
Tait	Rutherford	Right wing.
Duan	Haynes

The gate receipts at the Ottawa-Renfrew game amounted to over $1,000. Marty Walsh will captain the Ottawa in the remaining games of the season.

Cruel Mike Donlin says he Won't Announce his Decision Until Mar. 10—In the Meantime Business goes on Just the Same

Mike Donlin is going to let the New York Giants know by March 10 whether he is going to play baseball this season or not. If he plays baseball it will be with the National League Club in New York. Donlin has had a number of meetings with John T. Brush, the president of the New York club, as a result of which Mr. Brush made the statement the other day that terms had been arranged for the coming season satisfactory to both Donlin and the club.

Donlin has a theatrical engagement to appear in "A Curious Party," in which his wife, Mabel Hite, has a leading part. If he decides to stick with this baseball will be off for the season. Otherwise he has agreed to report at

THERE WAS A BIG DISPUTE

Manager Geo. Martel and Harry Rosenthal's Watches do not Agree—Both get Fired

Then happened an extraordinary incident. George Martel, Renfrew's timekeeper, vaulted the rail and followed Stuart, claiming the Ottawa man's full penalty had not expired. Harry Rosenthal was holding the penalty watch, and declared Stuart had served the full sentence. It was Martel vs. Rosenthal, with Russell Bowie and Duncan Campbell, the officials acting as jury. They were in a quandary at first, then decided to split the difference, and keep Stuart off for another minute. The penalty watch was taken from Rosenthal, the referees electing to hold it themselves. When Stuart's penalty expired he was followed immediately by Shore. Play had only been in progress a minute when full time sounded. There occurred another misadventure. Martel's watch showed there were still five minutes to play, while Martel Rosenthal, who was clocking for Ottawa, exhibited his timepiece as evidence full time was up. The officials were again facing a complex situation, and eventually decided to take both watches themselves. The players were rounded up, and sent at it again. Two minutes elapsed when the referees decided full time was due. So the game stopped for the nonce. It was decided to play five minutes each way, and with out a moment's respite the teams changed ends, and overtime started. Just after the face-off Miller gave Stuart a bad hook, and was sent off for three minutes. He had hardly reached the side when Kildup skated down the centre, crossed over to Walsh, who skated in on top of Lindsay and scored.

The Ottawa goalkeeper plugged his ears at Haisleybury. Which, by the way, sets an entirely new style in Ottawa hockey circles. Time was when they plugged the other fellows and let their own ears take chances.—Toronto Telegram.

Marlin Springs by March 14th.

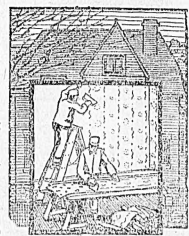

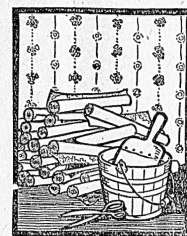

Donlin quit playing baseball a couple of seasons back in order to go into vaudeville with his wife. He made a great deal of money out of his theatrical engagements and wanted more from the baseball club for returning to the diamond. It was said he was after $8,000 for a season to play. Perhaps this means that he has got what he was after. His hitting won many a game in the season of 1908 and any club can use a hitter and fielder like Donlin.

George Wilkie has signed his contract with the Giants and will leave by boat on February 23 for Texas.

UNIVERSITY CONVERSAZIONE

All the features of university life in older communities are gradually being realized in connection with the busy young institution of higher learning over which Dr. Torg presides. Last evening the first annual conversation or "conversa," as it is usually called, to suit the convenience of people in a hurry, was held in the commodious though temporary quarters in which the university is doing its work at present in Strachcona. Several hundred guests spent a most enjoyable evening and there is no question that the event will henceforth hold an important place on the social calendar of the Twin Cities. The assembly hall was very artistically decorated, the College colors, green and gold, being prominent in a variety of ways. Here an excellent programme was given. Miss Constance Duck's three solos were enthusiastically received. Mr. Marriot, as always, was heard with keenest pleasure. Miss Maguire's piano solo, the piano duet by Miss Ching and Miss Wright, and the violin solo by Mr. Markle were all of a high order of artistic merit.

Previous to the programme a reception was held in the library. The patronesses of the occasion were Mrs. Bulyea, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Torg, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Broadus and Mrs. Kerr.

After ten o'clock refreshments were served in one of the lecture rooms, the large crowd being admirably handled.

The second part of the evening was given to promenading and dancing, which was kept up till well after midnight. Lynch's orchestra supplying the music.

Among those present were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Bulyea, the Chancellor of the University, Mr. Justice Stuart of Calgary and Mrs. Stuart, Premier Rutherford, many members of the University Senate which had been in session during the day, and several of the members of the legislature.

RE THE PROPOSED MARKET SITE

Editor Daily Capital:

Dear Sir:—The writer in Town Topics has evidently spent very little time looking over the present street car routes when he says that the ladies would have to walk from Jasper avenue to Norwood boulevard (a distance of 9 1/2 blocks) to purchase their market produce, as there is no street railway near the First street site. Do the ladies all live on Jasper avenue? What about the wives and daughters who live on the other streets, the majority of them closer to the new site than the old one? The First street site is as accessible to street cars now as the present site, and when the proposed extensions are made it will be much more so.

As to the present site being large enough for city hall, market, building, and hay and coal market, etc., it might be for a village, but not for a city. How much ground would be left unoccupied if we put a suitable city hall on the present site, with grounds to match?

If the market building were put on the present site it would only be a matter of a year or two until it would have to be moved elsewhere, so why not put it in a permanent place at the start?

The proposed site is not as flat as the present one, and therefore easier drained and kept clean. As to some of our city representatives owning considerable property around the proposed site, I would like to know who they are and what property they own. All the lots in block 14 just east of the proposed site are owned by private citizens personally known to the writer and not connected with civic affairs. I think it is ridiculous to insinuate that any of our city fathers should be so selfish and anyone who is at all familiar with what they do for us will, I think, agree with me.

As to the present site being in the heart of the city: what does he mean by the city? Is it a few small stores, a feed barn and an auction sale site? All these are easily moved to more suitable quarters if necessary.

Thanking you for the space in your worthy paper and hoping that the ratepayers will on Monday take the broadest view possible, I remain—One Who Has Confidence in the City Council.

ANY PERSON CAN OWN AN ORGAN

Good reed organs in splendid condition, bearing the names of most of the best makers are being offered by Geo. H. Sackling of Harmony Hall, 237-239 Rice street, at prices from $45 to $160 for which remarkably easy terms of payment can be arranged. It would be worth anybody's while to call at Harmony Hall and see the collection as per special advertisement on Page 8 of today's Capital.

DO YOU KNOW

That the candidate bringing in the most money for new subscriptions from the beginning of the contest up to and including February 24 (one week from Thursday) will be awarded a special prize of a solid gold watch, now on exhibition at Cook & Kirkland's Jewelry store.

Try for it. An easy prize to win.

VERDICT IN BOSTON NAVAL COURT-MARTIAL

MISS MARGUERITE AMES

MISS VIRGINIA SWIFT

MISS DOROTHY HESSLER

The court martial at Boston has given its verdict in the case of Paymaster Auld and Surgeon Robert, the two young naval officers charged with conduct unbecoming gentlemen in requesting Dr. Edward S. Cowles to leave a dance on Dec. 11 last, given at the home of Dr. Ames, using violent language towards him and handling him roughly.

Dr. Cowles was said to have stolen the photograph of Miss Dorothy Hessler and made himself obnoxious to her. The case has attracted much attention throughout the United States, many prominent Boston people being concerned.

Both officers were found guilty and sentenced by the court to the loss of five numbers. Paymaster Auld was restored to duty and his loss of numbers remitted by Winthrop. The sentence in the case of Robert was mitigated from a loss of five to a loss of two numbers.

In disposing of Paymaster Auld's case Winthrop said: "The conduct of Auld, as shown by the evidence, introduced before the court, is deserving of severe censure. The complaining witness, whether or not objectionable to several members of the committee, was an invited guest, and while in the yard should have been treated with proper courtesy as such."

"The department deeply regrets that Paymaster Auld should have permitted himself to behave in such and undignified and unseemly manner, and is of the opinion that the court properly found him guilty of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman."

"In view of the fact, however, that, although his conduct cannot be justified, the motives that actuated him were commendable and as the assault occurred after considerable provocation the loss of numbers adjudged by the court hereby are remitted, and Auld will be released from arrest and restored to duty."

Winthrop's comment on the Robert case follows:

"Owing to the peculiar circumstances of the case and the great provocation given to the accused by the complaining witness, the sentence is mitigated to a loss of two numbers of his grade, and Robert will be released from arrest and restored to duty."

FOUR MORE DAYS TO WORK FOR THE SOLID GOLD WATCH CONDITIONS of the CONTEST

MORE

Candidates Join the Busy Cheerful Workers—If you are in the List and not Working or if You Want to Send in Your Nomination and get to Work, There's Room for You

Now is the time to get busy in the Capital's great prize voting contest. The solid gold watch for the most money turned in for new subscriptions up to and including February 24, is proving a very attractive feature. Many candidates have found it profitable to try for this prize, knowing that they are getting up votes for the larger prizes by so doing. In order that all may "stand an equal chance," subscriptions mailed from Strathcona and any town in District No. 4 on Thursday night will be allowed to count for this prize. The winner will not be announced until Saturday, thus allowing plenty of time for the mails to come from all the outside towns. The contest department will be open Thursday evening until ten o'clock.

Candidates should turn in their order cards as fast as received in order that the paper may be started to new subscribers at once. The certificates may be kept and voted any time desired up to the last day of the contest.

While it is advisable to put forth the most energy soliciting subscriptions, the newspaper ballots should not be overlooked. When you ask an old subscriber for the ballot you pave the way to secure a payment upon his subscription at a future time. But do not put off asking for the subscription too long, for many more enterprising candidates may "beat you to it."

The Contest Department is well supplied with small subscription receipt books. Candidates may have any number of these books to supply friends who will work for them. A few of the contestants have failed to get the full benefit of the help the contest manager is able to give. Of course, the contest is still young, and there is likely to be more nominations, but the candidates who have been introduced to the readers of the Capital should take full advantage of the opportunity to win one of the seventeen valuable prizes.

For the purpose of the contest, the territory has been divided into districts, the contestants in each competing among themselves for the district prizes. The candidates in both districts compete for the three grand prizes.

LOST $10,000 BILL

Messenger's Slip Caused Excitement in New York Financial District

New York, Feb. 10.—A small army of messenger boys trailed through the streets of the financial district Saturday, their eyes on the side-walk, the street, the curb, on anything against or upon which a yellow-backed bill could find lodgment. And even some silk-hatted financiers glanced furtively as the same points as they walked along, because it's not every day that a $10,000 bill is likely to be picked up in the streets.

The search was set in motion when the ticker, which usually clicks out monotonously, the variations in stock quotations, carried this message into hundreds of offices:

"Lost—A $10,000 bill. Notify, Hornblower and Weeks."

Investigation showed Saturday that the bill went astray Friday morning, but was not reported lost until Saturday. Hornblower & Weeks have not its number, but hope to recover it, owing to the difficulty of passing a bill of such a large denomination.

On Friday morning, Benson Lang, seventeen years old, who has been employed by Hornblower & Weeks for four months as a messenger, was given the bill to take to the National City Bank for deposit. The bill was pinned to a deposit slip, and both bill and slip were enclosed in the firm's bankbook. Young Lang never reached the bank and did not return to his office. Saturday morning he reported the loss to his employers, accompanied by his mother. Now he is locked up in police headquarters charged with being a suspicious person. This is the story he tells the police:

"I never had seen so much money in one bill before, and I couldn't help showing it, first to the elevator man, then to another bank runner, and then to a bootblack, who had a stand in front of the building. I let him handle it and held it up to the light. He gave it back to me and I put it into the pass-book, but the pass-book in my overcoat pocket and hurried to the bank. When I took the pass-book out the bill was gone."

Lang says he was so dazed by its loss that he wandered about the streets all day until midnight, when he confessed his plight to his mother and went to bed. The boy had been an out-door patient of the psychiatric ward of Bellevue Hospital, as was shown by two cards in his pocket, both of which, however, gave fictitious addresses. When asked why he had not given the hospital his true name, he could only say "I don't want to." In the other particulars of his story close questioning has failed to shake him."

Both Feet Frozen

Rare presence of mind saved a settler of the Willow Bunch district, who became lost in a recent blizzard from the loss of both his feet. Two men whose names the Weyburn Herald's informant did not know, became lost in the storm, being out all night. When morning broke they saw a shack and made their way to it. The feet of one of the men became frozen stiff, yet with the aid of his companion he managed to reach the shack after an anxious four hours tramp.

They found it empty, however, but entering they located a large can of coal oil. Pouring the coal oil out in a pan, the man with the frozen limbs placed his feet in it and bached them with the coal oil until the frost had left his limbs. This act saved both his feet and probably his life. He is now able to move about on crutches and in the course of a week or two will, it is expected be able to walk about as well as before.

His companion escaped any frost bites but both men realize they had lucky escapes.

Last Wednesday, in the Y.M.C.A. bowling league, Blacketts' team took two games from Grants.

YOUNG ROOSEVELT

Son of Ex-President, who Works from 6 to 6, is Engaged

New York, Feb. 10.—Mrs. Eleanor Addison Alexander has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Eleanor Butler Alexander, to Theodore Roosevelt Jr., eldest son of former President Roosevelt.

The young man is still in the employ of the Hartford Carpet Company. He expected to remain with this company, he said, and added that there was a possibility that he might be sent to some other city to take charge of a branch house or something like that. He did not know yet, he said, just where he would be located after his marriage.

Young Roosevelt goes to work at the carpet company at 6 o'clock in the morning and works till 6 at night. He wears old clothes on his way to work and smokes a pipe. But he lives in comfortable lodgings, having rooms at the home of Robert C. King, one of the handsomest in Hartford.

He is at present in the weave room. He has been through pretty nearly all the departments of the carpet works.

He is a member of the Calumet and golf club. The Calumet is a social organization, and occasionally, but not often, he goes there of an evening. Last summer he occasionally played golf, but he doesn't mingle with the townspeople much.

Eleanor Butler Alexander was born the following December. In 1893 Mrs. Alexander left her husband and went to California where she got a divorce and was awarded the custody of her daughter. Two years later Mr. and Mrs. Alexander patched up their differences and were remarried in December, 1895.

In 1901 another break came between the Alexanders. Mrs. Alexander had been on a visit in Connecticut and on her return found a letter from her husband saying he had gone to Mexico. A fortnight later she received another letter postmarked Paris and signed by her husband, saying he was never going to return to her. Mrs. Alexander went to France and in 1906 got another divorce.

Later Mr. Alexander married the widow of Kinley Magoun—a banker of New York, who got a divorce from him in France in February of last year after a series of cross suits. One of the preliminaries of this last divorce was Alexander's announcement in 1908 that his wife, Jessie Torrance Magoun Alexander who was a daughter of Gen. Torrence of Chicago, had eloped with William Graham Blakeston, a London solicitor.

Lawyer's Unusual Fee

Chicago, Feb. 17.—A fee of $3500 for advising a client to marry a man who lived one hour after the ceremony is demanded by Attorney Seth P. Crews in a suit brought against Mrs. Sarah Smith, widow of the late John R. Smith, a wealthy mine owner. Smith died in September, 1908, at St. Luke's Hospital.

Mrs. Smith, then Miss Sarah Peterson, had been engaged to the mine-operator seven or eight years. Crews declared that she came to him for advice as to whether her marriage would be binding if it was a deathbed affair. The attorney counseled her to go ahead, and the marriage was performed. By the death of her husband she fell heir to $40,000.

Donald McMaster Confident

London, Feb. 10.—Speaking at the Constitutional Club last night, Donald McMaster, Canadian member elect of the British parliament, said his experience had convinced him that with education, organization and a preparation of some six or eight months beforehand two thirds of the divisions of the United Kingdom could be carried for the Unionist party. He believed the question of the navy and national security had a tremendous effect on the votes cast in the late election.

President Ekstrom, of Western Canada League, says that Winnipeg and Brandon are Out of it

The Calgary Herald says:

"When President Ekstrom, of the Western Canada League, returns from his trip to the coast he will hold a meeting for the purpose of organizing the league for 1910. From present prospects it seems unlikely that Winnipeg and Brandon will enter the running this year. According to press reports from the above centres, baseball is very quiet there at present. It is the general opinion that a splendid league could be formed in western Canada without these two clubs.

"A Lethbridge exchange says: Now that 'Chesley' Cox has been appointed manager, he will start out at once to get a pennant-winning team. He has already signed up Joe Corrigan, brother of the famous Jack, who was manager of last year's Lethbridge team.

"The Calgary fans will all remember Joe as the Lethbridge player who had the habit of getting his base from being hit by the pitcher.

"Bill Carney, manager of the Calgary team, is still signing up players. He expects to have Ed. Godhan, of last year's team, when he lands in Calgary next May. In a recent letter received by President Savage, Bill stated that he had taken on six players, but the names were not to be made public until the contracts were received by him. Carney also stated that this year's league in western Canada would be a very fast one, and the teams very evenly matched on account of there being a number of good ball players available from the Northwestern this season."

AN EIGHT END.

A Winnipeg exchange says:

"The Cassidy rink had the honor of scoring the first eight end of the bonspiel. When playing McMillan of Butte, yesterday afternoon, the Thistle bunch achieved this feat, which seldom occurs these days, owing to the smaller rings than a few years ago. Cassidy had to make a nice shot to make his last rock count."

Nothing strange about that. Why, the sporting editor of the Calgary Herald wrote an extremely interesting account of an eight end that took place at the Calgary 'spiel. And an Edmonton rink participated in the slaughter.

Archibald Langston appeared in the police court this morning charged with obtaining goods by false pretences. Harold B. Burnham, of the Burnham-Priest Electric Co., is laying the charge. It appears that on the 15th of this month Langston bought some goods from the company, and gave as payment an alleged worthless cheque for $3.00, receiving some change. The case was adjourned until the 21st without either election or plea.

A competition was held at the Y.M.C.A. on Friday evening, the event being putting the 16-lb. shot. The results were: 1st, J. T. Read, 35 ft. 4 in.; 2nd, W. Sturdy; 3rd, A. E. Seward. C. R. OKOTOKS LIBEL CASE.

Calgary, Feb. 19.—Samuel Hodson, editor of the Okotoks Review, was fined $50 and costs, and J. K. Rowles, a rancher, was declared by a jury to be not guilty in a criminal libel case tried in the Supreme court here yesterday afternoon. It was all over the letters sent in to the Review by Mr. Rowles. The two men were tried separately. Hodson pleaded guilty. The other man's case went to the jury.

The jury brought in its verdict of not guilty in spite of the fact that Mr. Justice Sifton, in delivering the charge, declared expressly that, in view of the evidence, there was nothing left for the jury to do but bring in a verdict of guilty. The jury thought the reverse, however. It is said to have been the first time in the history of the Alberta legal practice that a jury has declared opposite from the instructions received from one bench, and at the same time has acted within its legal rights.

The charge of libel was made by G. W. Hahon of Okotoks. It was the result of an article appearing in the Okotoks Review in December, 1909. The article was written by Rowles. It was very abusive, but did not mention Hahon's name. It was published during an election contest, when feeling between the east and west ends of the town was running high.

A small blaze, caused by an overheated stove in the butcher shop of William Edgar, corner of Namayo and Heimick streets, gave the firemen a run at an early hour this morning. The family were all asleep in bed when the fire broke out, but fortunately they were awakened by the smoke and an alarm was turned in before the blaze had made any headway. The damage is only slight.

FARMERS' PETITION

Want Combined Hay and Produce Market on the First and Heimick St. Site

Some 43 farmers who have been in the custom of attending the Edmonton market, have signed their names to a petition which is now late to be presented to the city council. The petition favors the locating of the permanent market on the Heimick street property. The petition reads as follows: The Mayor and Council, City of Edmonton:

We, the undersigned farmers and others interested in the affairs concerning a public market place in this city, most respectfully suggest to you that in the event of the present hay market being removed, we are of the opinion that the whole farm produce market should also be removed. Both purchasers and vendors of hay will frequently wish to deal in other farm products at the same time and place, and it seems so that it is in the best interest of all concerned that the market for hay and for other farm products should be carried on at one and the same place.

Signed by Joshua Fletcher, Ellerslie, and 43 other farmers.

WHAT THE PRESS AGENTS SAY

AT THE EMPIRE.

"Facing the Music," one of the most successful of comedies, is the play which the National Stock Company will present at the Empire Theatre tonight. This fine old English comedy has for years enjoyed an immense success in both England and America. The National Stock Company will present a complete scenic and costume production, and a really enjoyable evening may be depended on tonight.

Especially reasonable prices and an excellent company with fine productions, should surely attract big houses for the balance of the season.

"SECRETS OF THE POLICE."

One of the most interesting features of the bill at the Empire for the first three nights of next week will be the first appearance of Frank Mayne and his company in a strong, virile and interesting little drama that bears the title "The Third Degree," and which it is said shows to a wonderful extent the methods in use in the police department in New York city, or for that matter anywhere, to extract a confession from unwilling prisoners. The play has been written by Campbell-MacCulloch especially for Mr. Mayne, and it is of the protean order, either charged with a crime and of the in it an opportunity to display his truly remarkable powers as a versatile actor by assuming the character of the prisoner charged with a crime and of the various witnesses who appear to testify, somewhat unwillingly, against him.

The story briefly deals with the revenge taken by James Warner, the principal character, and the prisoner in the case, upon a man named Harding for dispossessing him from his home for the non-payment of rent. Warner sets fire to the property and manages to escape, though he is arrested and placed in prison. The police then gather up various witnesses who testify to bits of circumstantial evidence that forge a chain of guilt about Warner. The chief of detectives conducts the inquisition and by a series of cleverly put questions finally brings the case to a point where it is morally certain that Warner committed the crime of arson. He is desirous of getting a confession from the man, however, and he withholds a bit of information which, when it is sprung, brings the criminal raving to tell of his deed.
